

Sublimation Process and Materials

Product Data Bulletin

Description:

Sublimation is a “dry” printing method by which heat and pressure force ink below the top surface of a sublimation primed substrate. The sublimation process allows for vibrant colors, and preserves special finishes and grain patterns of the substrates printed. Suitable for indoor business, office, and retail environments.

Available Substrate and Colors:

White Label

White Aluminum

Brushed Brass Aluminum

Brushed Aluminum

Specifications:

AVAILABLE SUBSTRATE:

Label- Self Adhesive 4 mil Thickness
* White

Aluminum- 0.020” Thickness
* White Finish
* Brushed Brass Finish
* Brushed Aluminum Finish

PRINTING LAYER:

Sublimation ready polyester

MOUNTING:

Substrates are provided with adhesive backing